

The Day of Passion

09/02/2001

Robert Rogers

Passion of spirits materializing in pathways to the heart
Memories triggered by scents and feelings

Warm thoughts sunning me in my dreams
Radiant lips speaking soft words

Hands embracing each other
Hearts racing to catch the moment

All is in a second yet an eternity
Roses the emblem of love

And like passion only lasting a moment
Yet the memories remain forever.
